PANELIST BIO

Jennifer Yasumoto, Director

Napa County
Health and Human Services Agency

Jennifer has been with Napa County since 2002 and officially stepped into the role of Director of Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA) in January 2019.

HHSA is Napa County's largest department and a super agency consisting of Public Health Services, Behavioral Health Services, Self-Sufficiency Services, Child Welfare Services, and Comprehensive Services for Older and Disabled Adults. The Agency has over 500 employees.

Throughout her career, she has served in multiple leadership positions across the County and Agency — including Chief Deputy County Counsel, Deputy Director for Quality Management and Compliance, Mental Health Management, and HHSA Administration.

Jennifer also serves on numerous boards and commissions:

- Partnership Health Plan of California, Board Member
- County Medical Service Program, Governing Board Member
- First 5 Commission Napa County, Commissioner