ABOUT CALIFORNIA'S PUBLIC HEALTH CARE SYSTEMS

California's 21 public health care systems provide a range of comprehensive services, including primary care, outpatient specialty care, emergency and inpatient services, rehabilitative services, and in some instances, long-term care.

Though accounting for just 6% of hospitals in the state, these public health care systems:

- Serve more than 2.85 million patients annually
- Operate in 15 counties where more than 80% of the state's population lives
- Provide nearly 35% of all hospital care to Medicaid (Medi-Cal) beneficiaries in the communities they serve
- Represent a diverse population with 35% of patients using a non-English language as their preferred language
- Serve as the primary care provider for more than 500,000 Medi-Cal enrollees who have gained coverage since 2014
- Provide 40% of all hospital care to the remaining uninsured in the communities they serve
- Operate half of California's top-level trauma and burn centers
- Provide over 10 million outpatient visits each year
- Operate more than 200 outpatient clinic facilities
- Train half of all new doctors in hospitals across the state
- Employ more than 84,000 individuals

About CAPH

As a non-profit trade organization, CAPH works to strengthen the capacity of its members to advance community health, ensure access to comprehensive, high-quality, culturally sensitive health care services for all Californians, and educate the next generation of health care professionals.

Our Mission

For over 30 years, CAPH has passionately believed that everyone deserves an equal opportunity to enjoy good health - regardless of insurance status or ability to pay - and this belief is what drives our policy and advocacy agenda.
