

Pamela Riley, MD, MPH

Pamela Riley, MD, MPH, is Chief Health Equity Officer and Assistant Deputy Director for Quality and Population Health Management at DHCS. She previously served as Medical Director at the District of Columbia's Medicaid agency, and as Vice President for Delivery System Reform at The Commonwealth Fund. She began her career as clinical instructor in the Division of General Pediatrics at Stanford University School of Medicine, practicing as a general pediatrician at Ravenswood Family Health Center in East Palo Alto, CA. Dr. Riley earned a BA in Anthropology from UC Berkeley; MD from the David Geffen School of Medicine at UCLA; and completed her pediatric residency at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center in Torrance, CA. She received an MPH from Harvard T.H. Chan School of Public Health as a Commonwealth Fund Fellow in Minority Health Policy.