

Erika Andiola

Erika Andiola is the Political Director at the National Day Laborer Organizing Network (NDLON). Previously, Andiola served as the Chief Advocacy Officer for RAICES and was Press Secretary for Latino Outreach for Bernie 2016. She started her community organizing experience when she co-founded the Arizona Dream Act Coalition at Arizona State University. She then served in the National Coordinating Committee and the Board of Directors for the United We Dream Network. Her personal struggle as a formerly undocumented person has given her the drive and passion for immigrant and human rights.
