

Alexandra (Alex) Campau

Alexandra (Alex) Campau is Managing Director and Director of Health Policy at Cozen O'Connor Public Strategies (CPS). She represents health care clients before the federal government. Before joining CPS, Alex held senior roles in the federal government. In Congress, Alex served as Health Policy Counsel to Chairman Tom Price M.D. at the U.S. House Committee on the Budget and Health Policy Advisor to Senator John Barrasso, M.D., who is the current Senate Republican Whip, at the U.S. Senate Republican Policy Committee. In the Executive Branch, Alex was on the Department of Health and Human Services "Beachhead Team" for Secretary Tom Price at the beginning of the first Trump Administration and Special Assistant to the President for Health Policy at the White House Domestic Policy Council. At CPS, Alex assists clients with health care legislative and regulatory issues, lobbying before Congress and the Executive Branch.